Day Five: God Creates Good Stewards

Based on Genesis 1:26-31
Genesis 9:8-17

God said, "Now let's make humans who will be like us."

"They will be good stewards to all the fish in the sea and birds in the air."

"They will be good stewards over all the large animals and all the little things that crawl on the earth."

God created humans in God's own image. God blessed the humans and said to them, "Have many children. Fill the earth and take care of it."

God looked at everything God had made. And God saw that everything was VERY good.

There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the sixth day

A long time after God created the earth, God sent a great flood.

God saved Noah and his family and some of every kind of animal from the flood.

After the great flood had ended, God said to Noah, "I now make a promise to you and to all people who will live after you."

"I make my promise to all the animals that came out of the ark with you:
A flood will never again destroy all life on the earth."

And God said, "I will give you something to prove that I made this promise to you. I am putting a rainbow in the clouds as proof of the agreement between me and the earth."

Noah promised God that people would listen to God.

And Noah promised that people would care for one another and not hurt each other any more.

He promised that people would take care of the water and all living things in the water.

Noah promised God that people would take care of the air and all the birds and insects that fly in the air.

Noah promised God that people would look after the land and all the plants and animals that live on the land.
